AIFD Hands-On Class #200

Subject: Wedding Design
Title: "The Return of the Cascade"
Designer: Sharon McGukin AIFD, CFD, PFCI

In the ever changing face of wedding work, the new trend is the hand wired and taped bouquet and the cascade is the new "star". Your instructor will demonstrate several versions of wired and taped wedding bouquets and each participant will learn the skills and techniques of wiring, taping, assembling, and styling a bridal cascade. Keep ahead of the trends by learning this art of wiring and taping properly, and creating a bouquet of the highest caliber. Underwritten in-part by AIFD Diamond Elite Partner Smithers Oasis. Fresh product provided by CalFlowers.

AIFD Hands-On Class # 300

Subject: Funeral Design
Title: "Celebration of Life"
Designer: Randy Wooten AIFD, CFD

To "Celebrate" is defined as publicly acknowledging a significant day, event, or person with a gathering. During a time of loss, we need to reflect on the memory and celebrate the life of the departed. This workshop will open your mind to new ideas of how sympathy tributes can be effectively designed to creatively pay tribute with floral artistry. You will see demonstrations of all the classic styles and even some new design ideas to take back home. Participants will make a contemporary casket spray.
